eve online alpha pack

Did not receive DLC.. STEAM CREATED ACCOUNTS ONLY

This content can only be accessed with EVE Online accounts created through Steam. Existing EVE Online accounts not created through Steam cannot benefit from it.

Wow all of these negative comments are from kids who can't read, or lack information about a product which they want to buy.

These are also the kind of people who will buy a petrol car and want to fill it with diesel.

If you play Eve over steam, you will have a second account in your launcher, the "STEAM::234342424" Account.

If you buy an DLC V Pack over steam, you can get it over the steam account.

All you have to do is:

1. Log in into the steam account
2. create a new character of the faction of your main character V steam account
"2 years old account "Amarr, Steam Account also amarr but its only for the trading distance"
3. claim your items "injectors, skins" Plex are already on your Steam Account V Character
4. Start a contract "private" on your steam account with the name of the other account and put the items "plex, injectors.. in this contract"
"example: First account Name A - Second Account "Steam" B -- B will start a private contract with the DLC items to A and after relog on A, A will get these things. Google will also help you with tutorials"

That's all. No need to dislike the DLC over Steam if you can't read.

I'm German so my English got a bit rusty over the years.

o7. I've sent money for the plex for Alexander Starwalker and did not see his vault for 240 plex. This is a scam, never received :(:D great one!

Quick delivery; instant. Value for Alpha Eve players. Useful for skill training. PLEX means you can obtain useful stuff.. Did not receive my redeemable items. Don't recommend for now until the issues get resolved.. worth it. can give you a little head start in the game.. i never received the plex and other things i would like a refund or to get double the stuff >:C

. Works fine. Go to your reem menu and collect your stuff. Other thumbs down can shove them some place else.. big lesson learned never by anything eve related from steam.

didn't get the dlc

even tho i bought eve from steam in the first place im still waiting for my support ticket to be solved.. i paid for the alpha pack dlc and the game never gave the plex the injectors or the skin to me waste of money. Old Steam-purchased Eve accounts are incompatible with this DLC.
